

NEWS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Lynn Karr
Phone: 443-244-1262
E-mail: lynn@carrolltechcouncil.org

Carroll Technology Council Releases
the first Technically Correct TV Show of 2005

Westminster, Maryland, March 10, 2005 – Carroll Technology Council is pleased to announce that the first Technically Correct television show of 2005 is now airing on Adelfia Channel 19.

This program is co-hosted by Barbara Biller, President of IntelliTech and Josh Kohn, President of Kohn Creative. Tom Sullivan, of Vertical Solutions, was the Producer of the show, giving much of his time, talent and inspiration. Community Media Center staff and Westminster High School students Ron Hahn and Nick Ruff provided behind-the-scenes expertise as well.

The following businesses and individuals have featured segments of the show:

America's Remote Help Desk and Bob Young
Carroll Community College and Kathy Menasche
Carroll County Public Library and Gregor Becker
The Computer Nurse and Nancy Westfall
Tier One Technology Partners and Nick Geier
Wheeler Automotive Group, Inc. and Warren Wheeler,
Michael Wheeler and Todd Renfro

The show will air in March on Adelfia Channel 19 at the following times:

Monday	8:30 PM
Tuesday	10:00 AM
Friday	10:30 AM

Tune in to learn about Carroll technology businesses and resources, digital cameras and helpful computer tips.

The Carroll Technology Council was created in 2001 as part of the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce to prepare Carroll County for the future. In 2003, the Tech Council became an independent 501 (c) 3. With a mission to promote, support, attract and influence technology in the county, it serves a crucial educational and advocacy role in technology awareness and development campaigns.

For more information, please contact Lynn Karr, Director of the Carroll Technology Council at 443-244-1262, or visit our website at www.carrolltechcouncil.org.